7. Whistle Blowing

7.1. If a team member believes someone has acted or may be acting in violation of the principles set out in the Company's Code of Conduct, they must immediately raise the issue to their line manager, People & Culture or a member of leadership.

7.2. Concerns can be shared on the confidential People & Culture e-mail address (compliance@weaves.com). Weaves Corporation Limited will ensure complete confidentiality of the informant and the information shared to protect the interest of the team member.

7.3. Team members shall be alert and vigilant with respect to fraud, theft or illegal activity committed within the offices/stores. If any such activity comes to the attention of an team member, they must immediately report the same to their line manager, the People & Culture team or a member of leadership. Failure to report any such activity will be subject to Disciplinary Action.

7.4. Each case reported by team members at the email address will be investigated by People & Culture. If the finding confirms the violation, the case will be forwarded to the relevant committee. To ensure that false complaints are avoided, anonymous complaints may be dealt on a case-to-case basis.

8. Zero-Tolerance

8.1. Weaves Corporation Limited is a law-abiding corporate organisation and is compliant with “The Protection against Harassment of Women at the Workplace Act 2010”.

8.2. Weaves Corporation Limited has a zero-tolerance policy for harassment of any nature. Harassment may be defined as any unwelcome and inappropriate verbal or physical conduct on any grounds including but not limited to race, religious beliefs, gender, age, physical or mental disability or marital status. Unwelcome remarks or behaviour towards an individual or group where there is an abuse of power to threaten or demean them, creating a hostile work environment and/or interfering in work falls within the definition of harassment.

8.3. Employment discrimination can be defined as the unfair treatment of team members based on prejudices due to a person’s race, colour, religion, national origin, age and/or disability. This discrimination may manifest as the behaviour towards a team member, blocked opportunities, biased evaluations etc.

8.4. If team members believe that they are being subjected to discrimination or harassment, they should immediately report it to their respective People Manager/Leader or People & Culture committee.

8.5. Weaves Corporation Limited also has a zero-tolerance policy towards workplace violence. This could be any act that may cause another individual to feel unsafe or threatened, including but not limited to verbal or physical assault, threats, intimidation, bullying or any expression of hostility.
